

In the Dragons Lair

By Harakka & Co.

Quest Goals

Heroes must kill the Justiina-troll and Pekka-dragon. And then they must bring the treasure to the wise man, 'cause the wise man kills heroes if they don't.

Quest Background

Many, many years ago the great dragon, which name was Pekka "Peku" Åsa Göran Karlsson, ruled the muontaintop in the sacred forest of Holy Antioch. Rumors says that the treasure of "Peku" was awesome. Thousands of goldpieces, hundreds of jewels, millions of other treasures are all over the dragons nest. But the journeymans who seek that treasure, well, theyre now dead. And they've been killed before than they even see the lair of "Peku", 'cause "Peku" has an evil henchman. Troll called Justiina. She is the most powerfull troll in the northern world. No one who meet this bastard is now alive. Believe me or do not.

Now heroes are in the gates of lair of the Peku. Wise man has sent them here.

New Area

Room one.

Heroes come from the glyph and they see old, fancy forest around them. There are some boulders in front of them and the heroes can see flashes of some creatures between the woods.

Room two.

You see long way to the room and some skeletal warriors are there. Spiderwebs in trees scare you a bit.

Room three.

You come to the small open inside of forest. Small pond in the center of the open makes it feel pretty comfortable place. Exept that big beast in front of your nose.

Room four.

More spiderwebs around you. You hear footsteps aroud of the corner.

Room five.

You set your steps to the cave, which is guarded by some necromancers. Pekka is probably near, But where is Justiina? Maybe around the corner, 'cause you hear very loudly rouring.

Room six.

when you open the runesealed door you see the most terrifying sight in your life. Great dragoblord Peku and his minions are laying on the mountain of gold. Now is your time to strike!

Important:

Peku has UNDYING ability! Remember that when you play.

The gold coin token is now worth of 300, but heroes can't use it 'cause the wise man wants it.
